Higher Education

Centers of higher education in the Brownsville Borderplex offer our community access to technical, associate, bachelor, master and doctorate degrees. Texas Southmost College (TSC) is an integral component of our community. TSC is a community college that offers associate degrees and certificates in over 50 associate and certificate programs. The University of Texas at Brownsville (UTB) is a public institution that provides unique academic opportunities to over 8,000 students; it is a member of the University of Texas System. UTB utilizes a semester-based academic calendar. UTB currently offers 71 undergraduate bachelor's programs and 24 graduate programs for Master's and doctoral degrees. This institution provides the region with high quality education, its in-state tuition and fees are $5,372 (2013-14); out-of-state tuition and fees are $14,834 (2013-14). Starting fall 2015, UTB will merge with the University of Texas Pan American (UTPA) to become the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UT-RGV). In 2014, The Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education magazine ranked UTB as No. 9 in the nation in its yearly review of the "Top 100 Colleges for Hispanics." In addition, UTB ranked No. 5 (tied with University of California-Santa Barbara, University of Houston) in mathematics and statistics.
